

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Oscar Prasek, Jr. and Phyllis Landis exchanged their wedding vows on April 3, 1955, at Selby, South Dakota, promising to share their lives and love together for the rest of their days; and,

Whereas, Oscar and Phyllis gave life and love to two children: Deborah and Cynthia, and are now realizing the joys of having five grandchildren: Brian, Laura, Ashley, Michael, and Christopher; and,

Whereas, Oscar and Phyllis have been active in their community through his involvement in the American Legion, VFW, Eagles, and Lions clubs, as well as the Walworth County Veterans Memorial, and her contribution of time to the Ladies Auxiliary and Ladies Aid; and,

Whereas, Their family will gather for a dinner on April 2, 2005, followed by an open house to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of a devoted couple who have shared life's beauty and sorrow and have grown to love one another more because of their common journey; and,

Whereas, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of the state of South Dakota recognizes and commemorates the memorable milestones in the lives of the state's outstanding citizens:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 3, 2005, as in South Dakota, and I join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of their contributions and commitment.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighth Day of March in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
